I am considering buying tickets to go to a concert. I thought about how I had never been to one, and it felt kind of sad. There is a band called "Magic Sword" that I listen to frequently and that will be performing near me soon, and I think I want to go.

I think it's great that you are going to a concert for the first time. I'm sure you will have a great time, and you should definitely go!

I'm still thinking about it, i don't know why I am so nervous to go to a concert. It shouldn't be that big of a deal

Are you always nervous in crowds? or do you think it's something else?

It might actually be the crowds. I try to avoid too crowded areas and concerts seems to be people packed like sardines

Well, maybe a concert might be the best way to get over that. After all, you know that everyone there is there for the same reason as you, and are all excited about the same thing as you. If you think about it that way, the crowd may seem smaller.

Thats true, it might be even better if I have someone I know with go with me. I need to look for someone

Maybe you can ask someone in the H.S. band to go with you?

That's not a bad idea, I'm kind of shy though so maybe I'll wear one of my magic sword t shirts and see if anyone asks me about it

That's a good idea too! The at least you know if they ask, they probably have an interest in the concert! I think that's a fine plan.

Thanks, I think I'm going to this concert!

Good for you! Concerts are a lot of fun. And I think it will be a great way to get over your anxiety. Maybe even get closer to someone in the process!
